

INVITATION

“Celebrating the Textiles heritage” -in the West Midlands

Do you know that the UK fashion industry is worth over £9 billion pounds and it employs more than 555,000 persons (2017 estimates)?

CEAL is organising its second Commonwealth Day 2018 event; this time the emphasis is on “Community Textiles Heritage”. The aim of this year’s occasion, is the showcasing the artistry, creativity and innovativeness of Commonwealth migrants to Britain’s textile industry.

This event is also a celebration of the HLF-sponsored Legacy of Industrial Textile Enterprise (LITE) project.

Date: Monday 12 March 2018

Time: 6.30 Registration & Refreshments

7:00 pm Start

- Venue: Hawthorns House, Halfords Lane, Smethwick B66 1BB.
- Inspirational Speakers
- Refreshments
- Networking Opportunities
- Information on some of Britain’s textiles heritage innovators.

Kindly book your place and confirm your attendance via email, phone or text.

Call us to book your place or email: ceal01@outlook.com

Telephone us on 07891479255

We look forward to hearing from you!

